Thank you very much for your invitation and the successful organization of the event. We look forward to seeing you at the next summit...

LIEBHERR

It was a great pleasure for us to be a part of this valuable event that took place last week. I congratulate you on bringing industry stakeholders together on such a professional platform. I believe that the meetings we held and the contacts we made during the summit were very productive for both our company and the future of our industry.
